OFFICE OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 18 December 1961

50X1 1. [redacted] Robert Neal, Senate Preparedness 50X1 Investigating Subcommittee staff, telephoned referring to the English-Russian 50X1 military dictionary which had been brought up by the staff in the meeting with Stoerts and [redacted] He stated it was edited by Lt. Col. G. A.
Sudrilovskii in 1960 and was put out in Moscow. He states the Library of Congress has a copy. Neal added that if we looked into this and had any opinion or analysis, they would like to know the results.

50X1 2. [redacted] Met with Stanley Flesant, General Counsel, USIA, to inform him that in the next day or so we plan to return to Representative Zablocki a manuscript of a book prepared by an individual residing in Poland. We are going to advise Zablocki that while at first glance the book had appeared useful, full investigation had indicated it would not serve any useful purpose for the Agency. Advised Flesant that I wanted him to be aware of this since it was my understanding that this 50X1 manuscript had been placed in Zablocki's hands by one [redacted] 50X1 [redacted] I indicated I was not aware how the manuscript came 50X1 into [redacted] hands. Mr. Flesant was grateful for the information.
